

HKBU HK Island Wei Ke Qiang Chinese Medicine Specialty Clinic

About the Clinic and its Professional Services

Hong Kong Baptist University First Hong Kong Island Chinese Medicine Specialty Clinic opened in 8 March 2004 and is renamed to Hong Kong Baptist University HK Island Wei Ke Qiang Chinese Medicine Specialty Clinic on 1 June 2010. Located in 133 Connaught Road Central, seventeen floor of the Alliance Building , the clinic comprises seven consultation rooms, two treatment rooms, one Chinese medicine pharmacy room and one modernized herbal brewing room. A wide range of quality Chinese medicine is available.

The design of the clinic is very on a par with that of the western medicine clinics. Consultations of the patients are conducted in a private and comfortable consultation room. In addition to general consultation services, the clinic provides a broad spectrum of specialty services covering CM acupuncture, CM digestive diseases, rheumatology, CM orthopedics & traumatology, CM ENT, CM gynecology, CM paediatrics, CM surgery & dermatology, etc.
