

SCHOLARSHIPS AND FINANCIAL AID

Students with financial needs may apply for financial assistance in the form of grants, bursaries and loans. Fellowships, scholarships, awards and prizes are bestowed on the selected recipients including new students on the basis of academic merits and other criteria set by the donors. Requests for the most updated information should be directed to the Office of Student Affairs (<http://sa.hkbu.edu.hk/home/campus-life-support/scholarships-financial-aid/>).

Government Grants and/or Loans

The following financial assistance schemes administered by the Student Financial Assistance Agency (SFAA) of the Government are available to students with financial needs:

- Tertiary Student Finance Scheme—Publicly-funded Programmes (TSFS)
This scheme offers financial assistance to full-time students of University Grants Committee-funded programmes with financial needs in the form of grants and/or interest-bearing loans. The maximum grant is equal to the tuition fees payable and academic expenses for the programme of study. The maximum loan which relates to the living expenses varies every year and is the same for all students. Students may also apply for subsidy under the Student Travel Subsidy Scheme.
- Non-means-tested Loan Scheme for Full-time Tertiary Students (NLSFT)
This scheme provides financial assistance in the form of interest-bearing loans to all students who are eligible for assistance under the TSFS. The maximum loan is capped at the tuition fees payable.
- Financial Assistance Scheme for Post-secondary Students (FASP)
This scheme offers financial assistance to full-time students engaging in locally-accredited self-financing programmes leading to a qualification at sub degree level or above in the form of grants and/or interest-bearing loans. The maximum level of financial assistance is made up of tuition fee grants, academic expenses grants and living expenses loans, which vary every year. Students may also apply for subsidy under the Student Travel Subsidy Scheme.
- Non-means-tested Loan Scheme for Post-secondary Students (NLSPS)
This scheme offers financial assistance in the form of interest-bearing loans to eligible students under FASP to meet their tuition fees.
- Extended Non-means-tested Loan Scheme (ENLS)
This scheme offers financial assistance in the form of interest-bearing loans to part-time students of University Grants Committee-funded programmes or students of eligible self-financing programmes who are not covered under the TSFS or FASP. Same as other Non-means-tested Loan Schemes, the maximum loan is capped at the tuition fees payable.

Information in relation to these five schemes is available at the government's website at <http://www.sfaa.gov.hk/>.
